

WORK PARTIES

Work parties have a long tradition at Indralaya and are essential to its continued well-being. We invite and encourage your participation in the work parties scheduled for 2009. Free room and board are provided in exchange for your time and energy. The fun begins at 9:00 or so in the morning, after breakfast chores are done. We break for lunch at 12:30 and then come together for another couple hours of work in the afternoon. Evenings are devoted to informal discussion and entertainment by the fireside – bring your talents and musical instruments with you!
